

Namibia

A large, smooth sand dune in Namibia, illuminated by warm sunlight. The dune's surface is a vibrant orange-red, while the shadowed side is a deep, dark brown. In the foreground, a gnarled, leafless tree stands on a flat, rocky desert floor. The sky is a clear, bright blue.

About the Tour

Namibia is a country of contrasts from the deepest red of Sossusvlei's dunes to the wide blue skies and a visual feast for photographers. We will experience endless desert landscape, a quiver tree forest, an abandoned mining town, colonial cities and the magnificent Spitzkoppe.

Join Simone Osborne, experienced African Photographer and Go Gravel Photo Safaris, on this amazing tour.
